Designs

We offer a variety of benefits to help your company stand out from the rest. We can create logos, marketing brochures, newsletters, trade show displays, or any other design you want. Our professional and skilled graphic designers are ready to make your vision a reality.

Printings

We have a partnership with an unlimited number of Suppliers and Printing Houses, who are selected for their reliability, to give you a wide range of quality and prices that fit your needs and budget. And definitely, it is still a complex process to make things happen, so we work closely with them to ensure it is done right, whether it is bleed, color matching, material handling, glue adhesion, or packaging and delivery.

Promotion Campaigns

We love campaigns that genuinely reach your customers. We have been developing an extensive range of marketing and communications solutions using the right technology and analytical methods for years. All this is to make the marketing of your product or service a complete success.

Photographing & Documentation

Photographing & Documentation are essential parts of any successful event. With so many things to look out for, it's easy to miss the most important details. That's where we come in. Our team of professionals is happy to book and manage a photographer or videographer for your event. We have some great suggestions in our little black book and are more than happy to share these with you.

Market Research

Market Research is a must-have for any business looking to grow. Our services help you identify growth opportunities and build a competitive strategy based on a deep understanding of customers and the overall marketplace. We employ a robust, comprehensive market research strategy to ensure maximum research coverage.

Marketing Consultation

Our marketing consultants have the expertise to help you maximize marketing activity by optimizing the effectiveness of your current efforts and offering other alternatives. We work with you to identify critical issues, define parameters and objectives, develop strategies that address market needs, create attractive promotions and provide clear-cut execution plans.

Setup Design

Our event designers are committed to creating a rich, evocative ambiance for your events. Through an array of styles and elements, our event design team creates soothing, creative, and welcoming atmospheres that engage every guest. Whether you want to enhance your customers› experience through lighting or color, we›ll create the perfect atmosphere for your attendees.

Budgeting

With our Event Budget planning service, you'll get top-notch planning help without breaking the bank. Our planners will work with you to develop a plan that fits your needs and your budget, ensuring that your event is a success. Whether you're planning a small meeting or a large-scale convention, we've got you covered.

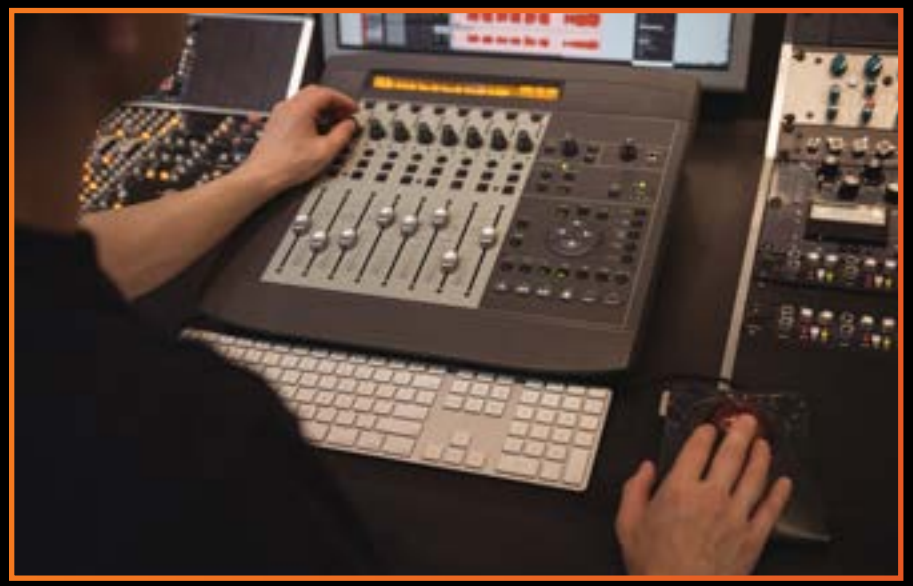

Technical / Logistics Support

Our highly experienced technical team is available to advise on all aspects of audio-visual production. At LOGEX, we always ensure that every technical device is ready and tested by fully qualified technicians who perform all necessary maintenance and testing procedures before any event. As an additional backup measure, we operate a standby generator for any venue where generation is impossible at the show.

Catering

If you are looking to add catering to your event the LOGEX team is more than happy to help with this. From pre-event to onsite we are delighted to manage all aspects of the event catering.
We will work with your chosen venue to present the best options to suit your requirements and budget. In addition, we work with some truly outstanding event caterers and we would be delighted to share our accumulated knowledge with you.
If you're looking for something a little different to add that special wow factor to your event, we can work with you to create the perfect package whether it's for a campfire, beach BBQ, or high-level evening event.

Organizing

The right event planner and coordinator is the key to ensuring your event goes off without a hitch. We collaborate with you to identify what you need and then create a plan to ensure everything runs smoothly, regardless of the size of your event. Throughout the process, we will be there to coordinate with all of your vendors, ensure that every detail is taken care of, and handle any issues that may arise onsite.

Documentation & Reporting

Our event reporting and documentation services provide real-time analytics reports that help you measure the event metrics and understand how the event performed. These reports will identify impediments to work on for the next event. Additionally, we document events by taking photos and videos that tell a story about what happened during an event and help keep a record of the things that worked well or need improvements when planning subsequent activities.

As the lifeblood of any event, the smooth coordination and communication can make .or break a flawlessly planned event

Let the LOGEX team help you discover how» to make your event more interesting and memorable. The sky›s the limit! You will be amazed at some of the events we have created .over the past years
